Piety Study Action

This has been a summer of the three legged stool for me. Our pilgrimage on earth leads us different ways in different years based on our openness to God's will.

This past year I have read more than usual and the books have been tied to becoming more and more open to the will of the Father. One book in particular had an immediate impact on me, He Leadeth Me by Walter Ciszek, SJ. Fr. Ciszek was born in Pennsylvania and as a Jesuit seminarian, he responded to a call from the Pope to join a group of priests who were to be trained to be missionaries to the Soviet Union in the years after WWI. After he completed the training, the program was dropped and he was assigned to a parish in a small town in eastern Poland. It was an easy life until 1939 when Germany and the Soviet Union decided to split Poland and eastern Poland was overrun by Soviet troops. Long and short of it, he ends up spending 5 years in solitary confinement in a Soviet prison and 15 years in a work camp in Siberia.

He wrote that after more than a year in the prison he began a meditation on the Our Father. It was right before him every day. From that moment on, he just opened his eyes to what God put in front of him and since it was God's will, he did it to the best of his ability to the glory of God.

Upcoming 2022 Cursillo Weekends

Men's Sept. 8-11
Women's Oct. 6-9

Please share how Christ is working in your life. Email Nancy Cook at nancy750@bex.net

Immediately upon reading this chapter of his book, I felt convicted. How often, I had let my favorite sins of pride and sloth divert me from God's will. How often had I done what I thought God's will was rather than actually doing it? How often had I done Piety, Study and Action thinking I was learning so I could do God's will when His will was right in front of me all the time?

Rather than the formal prayer which rolls off the tongue but doesn't pierce the heart, just a simple offering of whatever happens to me today. May I be open to the Father's will and please, don't let me offer anything evil. Fr. Cizek wrote that the purpose of man is to know, love and reverence God. Reverence God! What a concept! How do I reverence God? In my prayer, study and action.

Lay Director (Each month, one of our Lay Directors will write an article.)

September! When I was a kid, it was the start of the new school year with all its changes from the prior grade. Now, as an adult, it ushers in the beginning of the changes from Summer to Fall, calling me to notice my surroundings more as the subtle differences begin. Even though I have lived MANY Summer to Fall transitions, they always beckon me to ponder what changes I will make to my life.

We do know that the upcoming Men's and Women's Cursillo weekends will be a time of change for the candidates. Regardless of the effect on a candidate, there is always some change, whether it's making some leap in faith, or the opening of the door to his/heart just a little, or something else. The teams already have experienced changes to themselves as they've become teams, both individually and as a group, which will continue into the weekends as they lead the candidates. Please offer prayers and sacrifices and come to the Holy Hours and Closings to support these weekends.

For myself, I have decided to be more of the person that God has called me to be, exploring my gifts and accepting my limitations. I have made this decision before, and it's time to make it again! What is God calling me to do? Who is God calling me to be? From 2 Timothy, 1:9, "He saved us and called us to a holy life, not according to our works but according to his own design and the grace bestowed on us in Christ Jesus before time began".

God has plans for all of us. There are quotes from Mother Teresa that are helping me as I work to discern what changes I can make to live a more holy life:

"Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love."

"It's not how much we give but how much love we put into giving."

"I alone cannot change the world, but I can cast a stone across the waters to create many ripples."

Peace, prayers, and blessings to all of you!
De Colores!

School of Leaders

Greetings to all our Cursillo family!

Isn't this just the best time of the year? Summer is winding down and the gardens are providing the best fresh foods, even if you go to a farmers' market instead of your own backyard. School is starting back up for the kiddos with a fresh start toward learning and friendships. The memories of those reunions, vacations, and special events attended leave a warm spot in our hearts particularly for those dear to us. And best of all, there will still be plenty of opportunities for more of the same this month and next!

We had a fine group at the August School of Leaders and look forward to our September gathering. We will meet from 9 AM to noon at Findlay St Michael's in the Marian room on Sept 17. Doors open at 8:30.

Bill Obringer will do the Scripture and reflection. John Lyons will give a presentation on chapter 6 of "Into His Likeness", which is on page 61 titled, "Meeting God in the Valley". Deacon Jerry Gubernath will present the second half of chapter 4 (pp 51-64) in the book, "From Christendom to Apostolic Mission".

Come join us for inspiration, encouragement, and great fellowship! Bring a friend and bring a snack to share. We will have the coffee on!

Area 10 (Tiffin area) is holding an Ultreya on Sunday, September 25th at St. Joseph Church in Tiffin at 7 pm. It will be held in the Upper Room. We'll be making rosaries for the women of Cursillo #288!! (No experience required!!)

Palanca

OMG- This is amazing!! There are 59 Cursillos this month. If I were to list them all it would take up way too much room so I will list the second half mid-month on the Prayer Vine. I ask you all to sincerely pray for these brothers and sisters in Christ for an embracing of love from God our Father and a renewed Spirit in Christ Jesus his son. Please note our Men have one listed too. I know this is getting to be a busy time of year with summer ending and activities/obligations rising but what can you do to really lift up these Cursillistas- fast from some recreational device once a week, pray an extra decade of the Rosary, or write a little note. We need to pray for each other. Our Lady of Sorrows, pray for us. Jan Stainbrook
